
Title: a book

Author: Ana van Leyden

The thorn in the foot.
You will fill a bottle half with poison, half with a strong liquor. Go to a well traveled area, and break the bottle. Ensure it is broken so that the shards will not be spotted by passers-by Any who cut themselves on teh shards will find themselves poisoned. Any who find the shards will smell the alcohol on then, and assume a clumsy
drunk broke a bottle.
You may do this with another slave.
Accompanied by Gur'nag, i went to the moongate at Zento. We broke our bottles on the rocks near the moongate causing the poison to run on the ground near the gate.
